I accept the usage regulations including reproduction fees (see Price List Digitization Copies) and I undertake to comply with the Regulations of Use of Estate Materials of the International Youth Library Foundation in Munich. In particular, I undertake to observe the copyrights and personality rights when exploiting the materials. I am also obliged not to reproduce or distribute or to have reproduced or distributed unpublished materials (even those reproduced by the International Youth Library to a limited extent), either in full or in extract form or as citations, in print, in images, on electronic data carriers or in data networks, without the consent of the International Youth Library Foundation in Munich. It is not allowed for users to reproduce archive materials.

Moreover, I undertake to obtain the permission from the copyright owner (possibly also of the personality rights) before each exploitation (part printout, complete printout, replay, in the case of unpublished texts: any kind of citation) of materials protected by copyright and personality rights. I must submit such to the International Youth Library Foundation in Munich together with an application to publish.

The client(s) is/are solely responsible for compliance with copyright, personal rights and related rights according to §§ 60 a-h UrhG.

All services are provided on the base of our current terms of use "House and Use Regulations", including the usage and reproduction fees stated therein. With my signature I accept these terms of use bindingly:
